SENATOR A. O. BACON OF GEORGIA IS DEAD

End Comes Suddenly Following What Seemed Progress Toward Recovery.

SENATE SHOCKED BY NEWS

President Will Speak at Funeral service-Body Will Lie in State.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14 .- Senator Augustus Octavius Bacon of Georgia, chairman the Foreign Relations Committee of Senate, died suddenly in Washington at 2:10 this afternoon. He had been III n bed since January 30.

the last few days he had seemed to perove and up to 1 o'clock this afterneon e was thought to be slowly recovering. he immediate cause of his death was eart disease. His illness began with fammation of the kidneys.

Senator Bacon was 74 years old last

X-Ray Revenis the Cause.

It was with difficulty that his fever was overcome, after which the physicians used the X-ray in an effort to determine the cause of the Senator's illness. He was under the impression that he was suffering from a fractured rib, due to a fall in his bathtub a few weeks before, but the X-ray examination discussed a stone in the kidneys and an accompanying inflammation.

Inseed a stone in the kidneys and an accompanying inflammation.

Immediately a specialist in kidney disenses was called and the patient had the attention from that time on of three physicians. It was the intention to per-

Senator Bacon was one of the leaders in the Senate and one of the ablest law-yers. He served with distinction on the Judiciary Committee and for many years had been the ranking Democrat on the Foreign Relations Committee. He was a conservative and had little in common with the modern tendencies of the Demoparty or the dominant spirit of the ough he was opposed to the plan Although he was opposed to the plan for the direct election of Senators by the people he was the first to be chosen by that method. At the time the Secretary of State proclaimed the ratification of the Seventeenth Amendment, providing for direct election of Senators, Mr. Bacon had already been renominated by his party at a primary election as his own successor and was waiting for the meeting of the civil war and a member of Kitching Post, G. A. R., and the Knights of Columbus. He is survived by his wife and a daughter.

First Directly Elected Senator.

GERSON ROSENZWEIG.

A Noted Jewish Writer and Transwaiting for the meeting of the forgia Legislature to ratify this popular

As soon as the constitutional amend- known Jewish writers and translators in the Legislature, that body already having been chosen by the people. But he was unwilling to have the title to his seat clouded in any way, and he immediately made preparations for submitting his candidacy to the test of a popular vote and was promptly reelected without opposition. His term in the Senate would not have expired until March 3, 1919. breward for a long time conducted the facth time. His last two elections followed a nomination at a direct primary. Sonator Bacon was one of the few men in Congress who had seen service in the civil war. He entered the Confederate army in 1861 as adjutant for a Georgia resiment and later served as a Captain or staff duty. He participated in the campaigns of northern Virginia.

The reward for a long time conducted the Hebrew personal column in the Jourish Daily News. Shortly before his death he wrote an epitaph for his own tombstone, which may be thus rendered in English:

"Here we resonal column in the Jourish Daily News. Shortly before his death he wrote an epitaph for his own tombstone, which may be thus rendered in English:

"Hore rests Gerson.

"Mong sages a scoffer.

Who even to death

Has epigrams to offer."

Mr. Rosenzweig is survived by his wife.

Long in Public Life.

Augustus O. Bacon

A public funeral service will be held in the Senate Chamber Tuesday at moon. President Wilson, members of his Cabinet, the Diplomatic Corps, Justices of the Supreme Court and the membership of the House of Representatives will be present. Eulogies will be delivered by the President, if he is able to be present, and by prominent members of the Senate and there public officers.

The body of Senator Bacon will lie in state in the Marble Room of the Senate and the Senator's home city, where interment will take place Thursday.

At Senator's home city, where interment will take place Thursday.

At Senator's bodeside when the side came were his daughter, Mrs. W. B. Sparks of Georgia, his attending physician and his private secretary. Mrs. Bacon, widow of the Senator, is at Macon. Her health was not such as to permit her to come to Washintgon. On account of her ill health Mrs. Bacon has spent very little time at the capital Mrs. Sparks is the only surviving child Mrs. Manley B. Curry, another daughter, died a few years ago.

Senator Bacon's last appearance in the Senate was on January 30, when he presided over the meeting of the Foreign Relations.

Senator Bacon's last appearance in the Senate was on January 30, when he presided over the meeting of the Foreign Relations Committee. He had been complaining of poor health for several weeks. The day he left the Senate he was suffering from a high fever, and after he look to his bed his temperature gradually rose to 103.

X-Ray Reveals the Cause.

Defented by Senator Clark as president to demonst on leadership that had generally been conceded to Mr. Bacon. The election of Mr. Bacon. The election wint the Mexican criss. He georgia was unwilling that any cam

The State of Georgia has provided for the succession in the Senate by author-izing the Governor to make an appointment until the people shall elect in due course. It is the opinion of Georgia Demo-crats in Washington that Governor Slaycrats in Washington that Governor Slay-ton will appoint either Clark Howell of the Atlanta Constitution, or ex-Gov. Joseph Brown, to fill the vacancy until the regu-lar election next October. It is expected here that Gov. Slayton will be a candi-date at the direct election, and that who-ever is appointed ad interim will accept the commission with a personal please form an operation as soon as his health would permit, and his apparent gradual recovery was very encouraging to his physicians and his friends. At times he suffered excruciating pain and opiates were administered to relieve him. The

No Complaint Against Policeman Redding in 43 Years.

YONKERS, N. Y., Feb. 14.—Policeman John T. Redding, known locally as the "spotless cop," because no charge ever "spotless cop." because no charge ever was preferred against him in his forty-three years of service in the Yonkers police department, died to-day at his home, 147 Hawthorne avenue, of apoplexy. He was 67 years old and was a veteran lator of Hebrew Literature. Gerson Rosenzweig, one of the best was proclaimed, a question arose to whether Senator Bacon was not titled to accept his commission from titled to accept his commission from street on Friday, in his fifty-fourth year. the and was promptly reelected without boostion. His term in the Senate would have expired until March 3, 1919. It was said to-day by members of the origin delegation in Congress that he is the only man who had ever been celed to the United States Senate from confidence of the fourth consecutive term. Was first elected in 1894, and reelected to the His last two elections for the fourth consecutive term. Was first elected in 1894, and reelected to the United States Senate from the fourth consecutive term. Was first elected in 1894, and reelected to the United States Senate from the fourth consecutive term. Was first elected in 1894, and reelected to the United States Senate from the fourth consecutive term. Was first elected in 1894, and reelected to the United States Senate from the fourth consecutive term.

| Following the war he practised law Mason Ga.; served as a delegate to Mason Ga.; served as delegate to Mason Ga.; served as a delegate to Mason Ga.; served as a delegate to Mason Ga.; served as a delegate to Mason Ga.; served as delegate to Mason Ga.; served Ga. A Former Operetta Singer Noted for Mer. Beauty.

HELEN REDMOND.

HELEN REDMOND.

Her Beauty.

Helen Redmond, a popular singer in Operetta a decade ago and an auburn operetion decade ago and an auburn operetion of the Mason Hele Mason to the Mason Hele Mason Hel a long run at the Casino. Later she played in "Florodora," singing the part of Dolorcs. Afterward she was in "Yama" and "The Merry Widow" and "The Devil," one of Joseph Weber's burlesques. She lived in Philadelphia since her final retirement and appeared only in amateur concerts. The funeral will be held to morrow from the home of her brother, Mark Redmond, 371 Edgecombe avenue.

ROBERT MOORE.

Said to Have Been Oldest Member Cotton Exchange Ever Had.

Robert Moore, said to have been the oidest member of the Cotton Exchange in its history, died at the age of 92 at midnight on Friday at his home, 154 West Ninety-fourth street.

Mr. Moore was the father of Robert R. Moore, until recently City Chamberlain. He was born in Belfast, Ireland, came to this country as a boy and, making his this country as a boy and, making his way West, became well to do, and with the capital he had acquired went into the cotton business. He became head of Robert Moore & Co, of Cincinnati and remained its president until a few years ago. His firm under his direction became one of the head ways are the second of the s became one of the best known in the United States.

Mr. Moore came to New York in 1868, became a member of the Cotton Exchange and established his firm's headquarters in this city. He was a member of the Brick Presbyterian Church. His wife, four sons. Clement, Robert R. Edward E. and Kneeland Moore, and two daughters which might have been expected by

DR. CHARLES W. MILLER

His wife, who was Mary Lauderdale, and a daughter, Mrs. Howland D. Perrine, sur-vive him.

William D. Baster.

BLOOMFIELD, N. J., Feb. 14 — William David Baxter, $1 years old, died to-day at the Job Haines Home for Aged People. He lived in New York for many years and was engaged in the brass finishing business at 6 Reade street. Manhattan. He had lived at the Bloomfield home for five years. He is survived by no immediate relatives.

Franklin S. Henry.

Franklin Sylvester Henry died on avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, in his seventieth year. His wife, who survives him, is the only daughter of the late Gen. James Grant Wilson, who died last Tuesday at his home, 143 West Seventy-ninth street, New York. Mr. and Mrs. Henry had been married only two years. Mrs. Henry was unable to attend the funeral of her father because of her husband's illness. because of her husband's illness daughters survive him.

Mrs. Cornella Greenly.

EAST ORANGE, N. J., Feb. 14 .- Mrs. Cornelia M. Greenly, a great-great-granddaughter of Philip Livingston, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, died to-day at her home, 26 South Burnett street. She was 74 years old. A year ago she gave a site for a chapel to be erected in North Grove street, this city, on condition that it be named the Church of the Incarnation.

Mrs. Lawrence McCabe, Jr.

East Orange, N. J., Feb. 14.—Mrs. Lawrence McCabe, Jr., wife of Assembly-man McCabe, died at her home, 3 South Walnut street, this morning. She was 34 years old and was married fourteen years ago. Besides her husband three children survive her. children survive her.

Mrs. Isanc F. Roe.

NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 14.—Mrs. Madge Van Houten Roe, wife of Isaac F. Roe, owner of the Roe & Co. hardware business, died to-day at her home, 168 Clinton avenue. She had been ill for several months. She was married to Mr. Roe show two years ago. about two years ago.

More Families for Colony.

BERGER AS TRISTAN ACHIEVES SUCCESS

Newly Arrived Tenor Shows Genuine Merit at the Metropolitan.

HAS DIGNITY OF BEARING

Miss Farrar Appears as Marguerite in "Faust" in the Evening.

Wagner's "Thistan und Isolde" was sung at the Metropolitan Opera House yesterday afternoon before a large audience. The performance served to allow which might have been expected by those already acquainted with the style of the singer

Mr. Berger's Tristan had noble presence

DR. CHARLES W. MILLER

Retired Dential and Noted Sports man Passes Away Smidenty.

The news of his death was a great send to the Senate That body was in covernan of North Carolina made the antemomentum and the senate immediately
covernan of North Carolina made the antemomentum and the senate immediately
covernan of North Carolina made the antemomentum and the senate immediately
covernan of North Carolina made the antemomentum and the senate immediately
covernan of North Carolina made the antemomentum and the senate immediately
covernan of North Carolina made the antemomentum and the senate immediately covernan of North Carolina made the antesenate Bacon and deed.

Senator Senator Senate and been senators went to the hospital work of the Senate with the Senate was the senator senate and the senate of the Senate of the Senate and been senate Chamber Tuesday at noonthe Deplomate Corpor of the Senate

Senator Chamber Tuesday at noonthe Deplomate Corpor of the Senate

Senator Chamber Tuesday at noonthe Deplomate Corpor of the Senate

Senator Senator Senate and they public officers.

Senator Senator self the senate and the senator selfsuppose of the senate

Senator Senator Senator selfsuppose of the senate

Senator selfsuppose of the senate

Senator Senator selfsuppose of the senate

Senator Senator selfsuppose of the senate

Se

Rothier as Mephistopheles were the other principals.

MISS ALTMAN'S RECITAL.

Young Planist Whose Style Tends to Sentimentalism. Elenore Altman, pianist, gave her an nual recital last evening at Aeolian Hall. Miss Altman is a young local musician who has pursued the study of the pianowho has pursued the study of the pianoforte with Sigismund Stojowski. She was first heard here a few seasons ago and in her few public appearances has gained some measure of favor with lovers of the branch in art which she represents.

Her programme was of a high order in selection. It opened with Heethoven's sonata in A flat major, opus 26, that was followed by the B minor sonata of Chopin and two pieces by Brahms, his intermezzo, opus 118, in E flat minor, and the Capriccio, opus 76, in B minor.

Miss Altman's performance in both sonatas was in many respects favorable, though she was more successful in the Chopin work. She played them both in a manner that showed taste, and save for a few slips, with a smoothness of

for a few slips, with a smoothness of technic as well as good tone and most

An hour before he died a barber from the Senate called at the hospital and shaved the Senator at his request. Senator Bason at that time talked with several respite who were in the room, but took a very discouraging view of his case, but the Senator work of the senator would soon be out Mr. Bacon replied sadly: "I fear I shall never respect to the senator would soon be out Mr. Bacon replied sadly: "I fear I shall never respect to the senator would soon be out Mr. Bacon replied sadly: "I fear I shall never respect to the senator would soon be out Mr. Bacon replied sadly: "I fear I shall never respect to the senator would soon be out Mr. Bacon replied sadly: "I fear I shall never respect to the senator would soon be out Mr. Bacon replied sadly: "I fear I shall never respect to the senator would soon be out Mr. Bacon replied sadly: "I fear I shall never respect to the senator would soon be out Mr. Bacon replied sadly: "I fear I shall never respect to the standards of states in the stifty-eighth year. The was a member of the police force for twenty-seven years and was appointed which him has been of the most cordial and, to me, helpful sort. I particularly profited by his experience in foreign affairs."

Charles P. Senator Research with a smoothness of technic as well as good tone and most time John Yore died of pneumonia last night at his home, 31 West Thirty-fourth the home, 31 West Thirty-fourth with street. He was a member of the police force for twenty-seven years and was appointed which home and the was a member of the police force for twenty-seven years and was appointed. He was a member of the police force for twenty-seven years and was appointed which home, 31 West Thirty-fourth did to maintain its standards of states might at his home, 31 West Thirty-fourth did to maintain its standards of states might at his home, 31 West Thirty-fourth did to maintain its standards of states might at his home, 31 West Thirty-fourth did to maintain its standards of states might at his home, 31 West Thirty-fourth did to ma chief by Mayor Pierre T. Garven in 1906.

His wife and one daughter survive him.

Charles F. Krampe.

Charles F. Krampe.

Charles F. Krampe.

Charles F. Krampe, 77 years old, father of Herman Krampe, general manager of the College Point, Queens, branch of the Bank of Long Island, died yesterday at his home, 20 Eleventh street, College Point. He was a builder. Three sons and two daughters survive him.

The further numbers on the creekt in her general delivery. It was one lacking in power. She understands well how to sustain interest throughout a number or even an entire programme. If with this asset of fine natural talents and her present excellent accomplishments of the Bank of Long Island, died yesterday at his home, 20 Eleventh street, College Point. He was a builder. Three sons and two daughters survive him.

The further numbers on the programme were Schumann's novelette in F sharp minor, two pieces by Paderewski, "Legende" in A flat major and a "Caprice," and Stojowski's "Valse Im-promptu."

MR. ELMAN'S RECITAL.

The Young Violinist Heard in Second Interesting Programme.

Mischa Elman, the Russian violinist Mischa Elman, the Russian violinist, gave his second recital yesterday afternoon at Carnegie Hall. The programme was very similar in its arrangement to the one he had given at his first recital two weeks before. At that time he played a sonata, two concertos and a final group of pieces. Yesterday his list included Mozart's sonata No. 10, the B minor concerto of Saint-Saens and Handel's E major sonata. Among the shorter del's E major sonata. Among the shorter selections were the romance in G major of Beethoven, a Paganini etude arranged by Vogrich and the "Souvenir de Moscow," by level of violin virtuosity and in interpreta-WILL SEND JEWS TO UTAH FARMS the practical side of music.

It was violin playing that contained a genuine musical purpose and the tribute of appreciative response it gained for the young violinist from his hearers was fully deserved. He was ably assisted at the piano by wrote an epitaph for his own tombstone, which may be thus rendered in English:

"Here rests Gerson,
 "Mong sages a scoffer,
 Who even to death
 Has epigrams to offer."

Mr. Rosenzweig is survived by his wife, six daughters and one son. The funeral will be held at noon to-day at his late home, 1772 Madison avenue. The interment will be in Bayside Cemetery.

"Here rests Gerson,
 "Mong sages a scoffer,
 Who even to death
 He was ably assisted at the piano by deserved.

He was ably assisted at the piano by Percy Kahn. The audience was of fair size, but not large. This may have been death for the Clarion colony of Jewish farmers in San Pedro county, 200 miles south of Sait Lake City.

The Utah officials came here as guests of the Jewish Agricultural and Colonial

PADEREWSKI MAKES DENIAL. Not Interested in Anti-Semitic Paper or Polish Politics.

Threats against Ignace Jan Paderewski's life resulting from reports that he had made a large money contribution to a Polish newspaper of anti-Jewish tendencies have become so frequent that the pianist has sworn to an affidavit denying all connection with the newspaper men-tioned and denying also any active interest in Polish politics.

The affidavit was made at El Paso de Robles, Cal., on February 5, and was sent to Miss E. Comstock, a friend in this city. Besides threats against the pianist's life there have been attempts to boycott his recitals in many American cities where

STERN BROTHERS

Forty-second and Forty-third Streets, West of Fifth Avenue

Motor and Carriage Entrance on Forty-third Street

Are showing an unusually large collection of the Latest Authentic Models in

Women's Spring Apparel-On the Third Floor

Featuring distinctive garments of the most practical nature, as well as exclusive costumes for dress occasions, including

Tailored Suits, Outing Coats,

Afternoon Dresses. Dancing Frocks, Dress Coats and Wraps. Steamer and Motor Coats

Developed in the newest fabrics employed by the leading Parisian modistes. at Extremely Moderate Prices.

Monday, the following important offerings will be available:

Women's Afternoon Dresses, of Chiffon Taffeta, in black, navy and changeable colors; Roman stripes and velvet ribbon trimmedvery smart. Specially priced at $27.50 Actual Value $39.50

Women's Suits, of Wool Poplin. in black and all desirable shades. also Shepherd Checks, taffeta trimmed; with new short coat, tunic skirt, Specially priced at $25.00 Actual Value $37.50

Women's Coats, five entirely new models, of Moire and Taffeta Silk, French Golfine, Novelty Basket Weaves, Checks and Diagonals, Actual Value $35.00, Special at Final Clearance Reductions have also been made on the remainder of

Women's Winter Tailored Suits and Coats

Tailored Suits: a limited number of incomplete sizes, in Velour de Laine, Silk and Wool Duvetyn, Velveteen, Silk Velvets. Plushes and Broadtail Cloth, many trimmed with furs, at Former prices ranging from $55.00 to 195.00

Street Coats, of Peau de Peche, Wool Plush. Duvetyn, Boliva Cloth and mixtures, §9.75, 17.50 exceptional linings, some with fur collars, Former prices ranging from $24.50 to 59.50

In the Annual February Sale, To-morrow, on the Fifth and Sixth Floors,

Distinctive, Moderate Price Furniture

At Large Reductions from Actual Values

The undermentioned groups exemplify, to a limited extent, the scope of their stocks of unusually well selected, substantial and practical Furniture.

For the Living Room

Mission Style Arm Chairs, of mahogany. with leather seats and backs, Ranging from $12.75 to 40.00

Mission Style Settees, of mahogany. with leather backs and two or three from $18.50 to 95.00 leather cushions,

Formerly $18.00 to 60.00

Formerly $30.00 to 125.00 Davenports, overstuffed, covered in denimination with mahogany frames and loose at $45.00, 52.00, 59.00 Formerly $65.00, 75.00 and 80.00

Arm Chairs, upholstered, covered in denim: some with mahogany frames, some with loose cushions, Ranging from $12.50 to 33.00 Formerly $16.50 to 45.75

For the Library

Bookcases, of mahogany, in a large assortment of styles and sizes, from $20.00 to 70.00 Formerly $26.00 to 100.00

Library Tables, from $10.00 to 70.00 of Mahogany, Formerly $15.00 to 90.00

Leather Easy Chairs, at Corresponding Prices

For the Dining Room

Buffets, of Mahogany. $44.00 to 155.00 Formerly $60.00 to 250.00 of Golden Oak. from $38.50 to 50.00

Formerly $50.00 to 60.00 China Closets, of Mahogany Were $55.00 to 142.00. $45.00 to 85.00

Were $50.00 to 120.00 $35.00 to 80.00 Dining Room Chairs, of mahogany, from $6.00 to 16.50 with leather seats,

Dining Extension Tables, of Mahogany

Formerly $8.50 to 22.50 Arm Chairs to match, proportionately reduced.

For the Bedroom

Bureaus, of Maple, Mahogany, Walnut. Enamel and Oak, from $11.50 to 110.00 Formerly $16.50 to 150.00

Chiffoniers, of Mahogany, Maple, Walnut. White and Ivory Enamel, $12.00 to 100.00

Formerly $15.00 to 125.00 Bedsteads in all woods; also Brass and Enamel, together with desirable Bedding of all kinds, at very large concessions from regular values.

In connection with the Annual February Sale of High Grade American Rugs -On the Fifth Floor

Radical Price Reductions have been made in Highest Quality Wilton Rugs. Royal Wilton Rugs, 27 by 54 inches. Regularly $4.50, at $3.50 27 by 54 inches, Regularly $6.15, at $5.00 36 by 63 7.00, " 4.85 9.50, " 6.90 36 by 63 26.50, " 20.00 38.50, " 25.00 42.50, " 27.50 36.75, " 26.50 54.00, " 32.50 o by 9 ft .. 6 by 9 ft., 8 ft. 3 by 10 ft. 6. 8 ft. 3 by 10 ft. 6. 60.00. " 34.50 9 by 12 ft., 9 by 12 ft.. 9 by 15 ft. and 9 by 15 ft. and 58.00, " 47.50 10 ft. 6 by 12 ft. 81.75. " 58.00 10 ft. 6 by 12 ft., 67.50, " 55.00 92.00. " 67.50 10 ft. 6 by 13 ft. 6. " 10 ft. 6 by 13 ft. 6. 73.50, " 61.50 11 ft. 3 by 15 ft., 102.00, " 85.00 11 ft. 3 by 15 ft.,

Inlaid and Printed Linoleums, new Spring designs, in both wood and tile effects cut from full rolls. Regular Values 60c, $1.25 and 1.50 Yard. at 38c, 75c, 95c

Royal Wilton Carpets, 34 yard wide, in plain colorings, of green, red and Several Later Importations have been added to the very large collection of Oriental Rugs, Carpets and Hall Runners in which will be found the following unmatchable values:

Oriental Rugs, Small and medium size. $5.75 to 49.50 Formerly from $9.75 to 95.00 light blue, with & yard figured borders to match.

Persian Hall Runners, both narrow and wide, at $19.75 to 68.00 Actual Values $42.50 to 135.00

Persian Rugs.

from $68.00 to 375.00 Formerly from $135.00 to 750.00

Extra Large Size Persian Rugs, from 12 to 20 ft. wide by 15 to 23 ft. long, at $195.00 to 1506.00

Regular Values $3.25 and 3.50 Yard, at $2.25

Formerly from $450.00 to 2975.00